The Duke Of Devonshire Performed The Opening Ceremony for the impressive Bolsover Primary Health Care Centre, Welbeck Road, Bolsover

Bolsover Surgery, Derbyshire

The Ceremony was attended by invited local GP's, local councillors, the patient participation group and practice and PCT staff. There was also be an opportunity for patients and interested parties to look around the new surgery.

This excellent facility offers patients a larger, more spacious facility with a comfortable and relaxing environment as well as consulting rooms, treatment rooms for minor operations, a large Health Education room for classes and meetings and ample parking for patients and staff.

The professional and efficient services already offered have been extended to add podiatry and community matrons. The building also accommodates all the community clinical team and practice staff under one roof. With the addition of state of the art equipment the staff can now offer patients a truly up-to-date and effective service.

The realisation of this fantastic community facility has been brought about through a number of close working relationships. The Bolsover Surgery run by Rosemary Adams, Practice Manager and Dr. Simon Nissenbaum, owners Ashley House plc, Derbyshire County PCT Estates Department.

Practice Manager, Rosemary Adams proudly states that after a lot of hard work by all those involved, the completion of the new Health Care Centre will now provide a fantastic opportunity for doctors, patients and staff to work together to develop an integrated approach to local health issues in stylish and modern surroundings.

Owners and designers Ashley House plc are experienced in delivering well-managed, high quality Primary Health Care developments nationwide. Other successful projects have included Ashbourne Health Centre and Meadowfields Medical Practice in Chellaston.

Bolsover Primary Health Care Centre is the latest in a growing portfolio of such developments for Ashley House plc.

"We work closely with the doctors and the stakeholders to provide an all-round complete solution to their requirements" states Gail Mosely, Director of Developments, adding that "We are proud to state that Bolsover is one of our flagship projects which clearly demonstrates our commitment to providing the best healthcare facilities for patients and staff and always conveniently situated at the 'Heart of the Community.'"
